

Hello there...

The Spiritual Third Way is the story of my life, with valuable contributions from fellow authors, Stella Fletton, (The Salliniquai Chronicles) and Charlotte Pardy. (Breaking Free, Blooming Wild).

While I'd love this book to be traditionally published, with all the crazy scams, con men, vanity presses, (I've been stung twice) and being a relatively new, unknown author unable to afford professional support whatsoever, I fear this revolutionary book I have shed therapeutic blood, sweat, and tears over for years may well become buried beneath a mountain of AI-generated books that even some top judges can't tell when they are not written by a human.

It is not a losing battle, though. Not for Aquarius woman.

There is always A Third Way...

But still. I understand that as authors, we must earn your support through our authenticity, and then with your endorsements... begin to shine!
