

The Matriarchy

With children as the focus of everything we do; a fierce, protective love for all children, a compassionate sense of humanity, and hope for a future we must now fight for can only be achieved by increasing the number of awakened souls, which will then raise the level of spiritual energy in the world.

And then... The Third Way naturally follows bringing collective support, generous community services, and opportunities for everyone to improve.

The Third way movement builds foundations for future communities for future generations. For LIFE.

The seeds we plant now will take years to take hold and germinate, blossoming into something wonderful.

Knowing something good, and whole, and connected, and loving is coming to claim us... those of us who have made the conscious shift towards a new age, a new world, and a new future that is, feels beyond uplifting.

Not a future that is continually re-badged to fool the masses using the back hand of politics. Not the one that dumbs people down through religious doctrine. Not the one that secretly, or overtly in fact wants to crush the feminine, and whitewash the truth about the historical, continual elite white supremacy culture.

A short story that could be true...

In the beginning, there was only the seeded feminine and the matriarchy reigned. Throughout the many goddess-blessed Matriarchal ages, progress towards nature's natural abundance prevailed, bringing equity, unity, understanding, and love like a gently rippling tide of carefully governed growth.

The age of Gemini is the last known Matriarchal age. An age where peace prevailed, but where twinned women and men grew apart. The masculine became sly, deceitful, and jealous of women's power, eventually convincing women to share the sacred knowledge that matured naturally within them.

But they tricked women into trusting they would give back this knowledge, which is of divine creation. The Piscean age was only one of the patriarchal ages, and a false system of creation invented to skew the lives of generations.

They did not realise, however, that women were one with all of creation, the life force of all that lives, and could not truly be restrained when they are naturally created to rise.

Once the Piscean age ends and the age of Aquarius begins, monumental change will occur in unimaginable ways.

So, you see, every woman alive now is the cream of the crop. We have survived the last patriarchal age and were reborn in this time to take up the women's liberation movement. Only the strongest survive, and as a black woman, I am an example of the first living human. The Earth Mother.
